Fall 2007 Application Deadline: July 31, 2007
Fall 2007 Term Start Date: August 27, 2007

Located in Detroit, Michigan, Marygrove College has been a leader in teacher education since 1914. In the past decade, more teachers have earned the Master in the Art of Teaching (M.A.T.) degree from Marygrove College than from any other college or university. Marygrove College, a member of the first colleges to offer the convenience and flexibility of a distance learning master's program. Marygrove, in collaboration with the University of Michigan, has produced the videos and instructional materials utilized in Marygrove's distance learning degree program.

Master in the Art of Teaching with a focus on Curriculum, Instruction and Assessment (K-12)

The M.A.T. with a focus on Curriculum, Instruction and Assessment is geared towards teachers from all subject areas and grade levels. The program's repertoire of methods to align their curriculum and instruction to standards. Assessment of student needs and performance is also covered. The program emphasizes the practical application of proven teaching strategies, adapted to fit each teacher's unique setting.

Join the thousands of students who are currently enrolled or who have graduated from Marygrove's MAT program. Discover more about the program.
